Initiatives to Help Those in Need

Réve the Movement is our nonprofit line of bags created to give back to those in need. Through this initiative, we have been able to help the following worthy causes:

LARC

LARC is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization whose mission is to enrich the lives of the developmentally and intellectually disabled in our community. LARC focuses on their mission by providing lifestyle and vocational services to these individuals specifically here in Acadiana. Here at LARC's Acadian Village, we serve as the fundraising arm for LARC. Our village is home to 8 authentic Acadian homes from the 1800s, and features replicas of an Acadian Chapel, General Store, and Blacksmith Shop. By hosting events here at the village, whether it be a wedding, tour group, field trip, or our largest 23 night fundraiser that takes place in the month of December, Noel Acadien au Village, which is Acadiana's premier showcase of Christmas lights.

We Heart Veterans

We Heart Veterans is a local 501(c)(3) organization with the very specific task of helping our aging wartime military Veterans heroes, as well as widows of wartime Veterans with essential aid to insure them a better quality of life. We accomplish this by providing non-medical home care services, as well as our Veteran programs, Ramps for Independence, Never Forget, and The Gift of Sound.

ATRO

ATRO is a 509(a)2 nonprofit organization, established in 1984, which promotes the rehabilitation of individuals with physical, emotional and learning disabilities through equine facilitated activities.

Catholic Services of Acadiana

Motivated by the Gospel, we offer essential services to preserve and enhance the lives of people experiencing poverty, hunger, and homelessness in Acadiana.

Festival International

Festival International de Louisiane is a non-profit organization that produces the largest international music and arts festival in the United States with a special emphasis on the connection between Acadiana and the Francophone world and an estimated economic impact of 49 million annually.

Healing House

Healing House is a non-profit agency helping children ages 4 – 17 who are anticipating or have experienced the death of a family member or other important person in their lives. They provide a welcoming and comfortable group atmosphere where children can express their thoughts and feelings..

Professional Affiliations

Downtown Lafayette Unlimited Member/DTA!

Rêve Coffee Roasters is a proud and active member of DLU, the non-profit membership organization that serves to promote the downtown district, convene stakeholders, and advocate for issues to move downtown forward. On more than one occasion, Rêve has proudly sponsored DTA!, the free live music series in Downtown Lafayette.

LSUE Board of Advisors

The LSU Eunice Board of Advisors, established in 1993, is a group of up to 75 community and business leaders from the LSU Eunice service region organized for the following purpose:

1. to serve as an avenue of communication between the campus and its regional service area;
2. to assist the campus in strengthening existing services and identifying new services to the benefit of the region;
3. to assist in identifying and soliciting appropriate support from the broad and varied constituencies which are important to the continuing development of the campus;
4. to cultivate good will, mutual support, and common understanding between the campus and a variety of external groups and individuals, particularly government agencies;
5. to facilitate campus efforts to develop as an institution which meets the needs of all citizens of its regional service area; and,
6. to foster and enhance the understanding among appropriate individuals and groups of the importance of the campus to the region.

St. Landry Chamber of Commerce

Since 1919, the chamber has served as an organization through which business executives, professionals and other concerned citizens have united to provide leadership and direction for the economic and social development of our community.

Barista Guild of America

The Barista Guild of America, founded in 2003, offers its members a variety of exceptional educational opportunities, including a Barista Certificate Program. Classes toward BGA Certificate Levels 1 and 2 are available throughout the year. SCA's Regional Barista Competitions and the annual United States Barista Championship (USBC) provide excellent year-round networking opportunities for members and a venue for refining the industry's cutting-edge trends in coffee preparation.
