COMMENT(S) FROM THE PUBLIC

AGENDA ITEM NO. 30: Comments from the public on any other matter(s) not on this agenda.

Kayce Coleman was not present when called.

Mathew Humphry explained what Pride is and provided a brief history of how governments have oppressed the gay population. He asked what he should tell people that inquire why they should stay in a city that won't even recognize them.

Jae Regan asked the Council to declare June LGBT Pride Month noting that there are still far too many tales of gay discrimination and violence and trans suicide.

Jennifer Simms stated that Destiny Camp is still going forward and that she is hoping for the pool enclosure to be completed for year-round swimming.

Clarice Gallegos thanked the Council and the administration for their interest in mental health. She noted that Focus Clubhouse is the only clubhouse in Lafayette.

Jonathan Prejean stated that there is a corrupt neighborhood in Lafayette and that the properties are bouncing form rental company to rental company.

Andrew Capps stated that after five (5) years this is his last meeting where he will be covering the Council.

Sean Johnson shared his support for the pool enclosure so his kids could continue the program year-round.

Dory Thomassie, PFLAG President, asked the Council to declare June LBGT Pride Month and stated that Lafayette's LGBTQ+ Pride Celebration will occur downtown on June 29th.

Maxine Hamilton shared her support of the MLK pool enclosure and noted that the morning water aerobics class has to first remove critters from the pool each morning.

Tracy Fabre stated that there are lots of loving LGBT families in Lafayette and stated that no answer has been received after multiple inquiries for a June Pride proclamation.

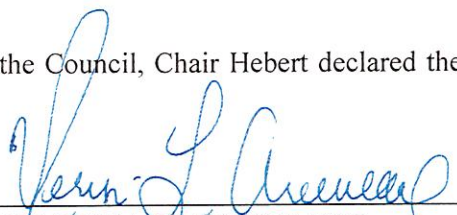

One (1) citizen signed in, in support of Pride Month, but did not wish to speak.

Three (3) citizens contacted the Council Office in support of the MLK pool enclosure.

Naquin requested an update on the pool enclosure from the administration.

(7:19:00) ADJOURN

There being no further business to come before the Council, Chair Hebert declared the Regular Meeting adjourned.

VERONICA L. ARCENEAUX,
LAFAYETTE CLERK OF THE COUNCIL
